

Board will not proceed with Call for Bids

May 01, 2002

Halifax, NS - In accordance with its Guidelines on the Issuance of Exploration Licences the Canada - Nova Scotia Offshore Petroleum Board has completed a review of nominations received up to March 31, 2002. Further to this review, the Board has decided not to proceed with Call for Bids in June of 2002.

The next nomination closing date is September 30, 2002. Nominations received prior to that date will be considered for inclusion in the next Call for Bids, which, if held, would be issued in December 2002.
